THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO

PRESIDENT'S REPORT FOR ANNUAL MEETING

June 20th, 1939.

I feel that some explanation should be given you for the delay in calling this Annual Meeting, usually held in March or April. As you all know, Mr. A. H. Robson, for many years our Vice-President, died suddenly early in March. Before and since that time, many of your officers have been away and the arrangements so necessary to fill his place have occasioned the delay in calling the meeting. A resolution has been prepared and will be brought up later this afternoon, to mark our regard for him, but I feel that his devotion to this Institution since he first took office requires special recognition from me as your President. If we did not fully realize it before, his removal has brought clearly to our minds the wideness and intimacy of his interest in the Gallery. During the time he was confined to his bed, he was in constant touch with all our activities, and initiating and advising on plans for the future. His interests were comprehensive—exhibitions, new acquisitions, the Educational Department, Membership and the quest for new funds for buildings and other purposes,—all centred in him; and his tact, ingenuity, patient wisdom, and unfailing energy, to the very last made him the predominant director and guide of the Gallery's fortunes. May I remind you that in addition to this, he was a very active man in his business world and we may well direct our expression of sympathy to Rous & Mann, Limited, where his loss must be even more deeply felt. For years too, he has taken an active part in the maintenance of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and the Dominion Drama Festival—but the Art Gallery, as he repeatedly said, lay nearest his heart. He, more than any other man, was responsible for the great additions to our buildings in 1926, and it can truthfully be said of him as of Sir Christopher Wren—"si monumentum requiris, circumspice". He has left us with a great task well begun; we will do well to devote our energies, as he did, to its completion.

The year 1938 has not been an easy one for us, as for many others in this anxious world; but we have very well maintained our place. In surveying the list of new acquisitions to the collection, one is struck again with our dependence on the generosity of our friends. Early in the year, the lovely "Rest on the Flight to Egypt" by Bernard Van Orley, was presented to the Gallery by a number of private subscribers who wish to remain anonymous—which does not prevent me from expressing our gratitude. This early sixteenth century panel takes its place splendidly to represent the Flemish painting of its time. A number of other gifts and bequests of works of art by friends of the Gallery have added largely to our representation of Canadian painting and our list of purchases, while not so large as last year's, is no less distinguished.

No fewer than fifteen items from the Gallery's collection were lent to the Tate Gallery and our loans to this and other exhibitions total one hundred and twenty-two. We are glad to accede to these demands on our collection for we feel that, within limits, we hold our works in trust for the community as a whole.

Our exhibitions, now working on a six month season, were varied and interesting though there were no outstanding successes. Nearly half of them were sponsored by Canadian Art Societies. Attendance, which varies directly with the public interest in our exhibitions, was slightly less than the year before, 112,862 as against 116,901—a difference of less than 4%.

Our Membership has lost in numbers. For 1937 it was 2,351 and for 1938, 2,204. During the Munich crises, which came at the time when our Membership finds most of its recruits, people were so disturbed and anxious that no gains were made; and I cannot remind you too strongly that an active and interested Membership can do a great deal to maintain all our activities by encouraging their friends to join. In spite of these losses we welcome as Founder Members—Messrs. John David Eaton, J. P. Bickel and Arnold C. Matthews; as Benefactor Members, Messrs. Gerald Larkin and G. F. Osler; and as new Life Members 47, which includes a number who transferred from Annual to Life Membership.

In the summer of 1938 Mr. Arthur Lismer, for ten years Educational Supervisor, left to take an appointment at Teachers College, Columbia University. In spite of his very onerous duties there, he has found time to pay us a number of visits and to keep close advisory touch with the Educational Staff at the Gallery and the Children's Art Centre. We miss his active, vigorous and original presence, but his staff, splendidly selected and trained by him, have done a magnificent job on the resources we have at our command, since the Carnegie Corporation grants, so generous to us in the past, have ceased. It is their stated policy first, only to make grants for a limited time, (with us they have been twice extended); second, in the hope that the work thus aided may on the termination of the grants, find local support. I am happy to say that a very real measure of support has been found and we have reason to hope that it will become reasonably permanent—a factor very necessary for this pioneering work.

The work itself is being carried on at full pitch. The public school classes under Miss Wilson, appointed by the Toronto Board of Education come at the rate of four classes daily throughout the school year. Many classes and groups from other schools, from social organizations within and outside of Toronto have been conducted through our collection and exhibitions. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has given us a series of Radio Talks and many lectures were given by the Gallery Staff and by visiting Lecturers.

The demand for circulating exhibitions of our Teaching material has yearly increased and this and our slide collection are both being enlarged to meet the new situation. Much closer co-operation has been developed with the Ontario Department of Education, to our mutual advantage.

The Saturday Morning Classes, now in their eleventh year, are widening their scope and many of our earlier children are now making their mark, we hope not a little as the result of their younger days' experience at the Gallery.

The Summer School, strictly limited in numbers as it has to be, was overwhelmed by applications for registration.

The Children's Art Centre, too, has to face extreme difficulties due to constricted space. In spite of this, groups of children and adults from all parts of the city continue to produce an extremely interesting variety of work and to respond to the stimulus of inspired instruction. On the whole, this most necessary part of the Art Gallery's field of activity has been working at full pressure and its further expansion is only retarded by lack of greater support.

The daily papers and other periodicals have again been most generous in reporting our activities and in illustrating our exhibitions. Work such as ours may not appear to be very "hot news", none the less the papers have done a great deal to keep the public informed and the quality of their critical reviews has been very good indeed.

During the summer the domed skylight in the Fudger Rotunda was replaced by a larger octagonal one, with the result that this is now one of our best lighted galleries.

May I take this opportunity of thanking the Council of the City for their interest in and sympathy for this Institution. This is particularly shown in the splendid way in which the Parks Commissioner and his staff maintain our grounds and in the efficient and willing help of the Police Force in handling traffic and guarding the buildings.

The staff, as has always been the case, and in spite of an ever-increasing load of work, particularly in the Educational Department, have maintained their cheerful efficiency and courtesy.

Finally, to the various committees by which our detailed work is managed, I wish to express the very deep thanks of the Gallery for their continuous interest; and to their Chairmen—Messrs. F. P. Wood, Finance Committee; C. S. Band, Education Committee; E. R. Rolph, Building and Grounds Committee, Ivor Lewis, Publicity Committee and George E. Watson, Membership Committee, who have additional duties as members of the Executive Committee,—I should like to tender our particular thanks.
